

openSE

open educational framework for computer science Software Engineering

PRESS RELEASE OCTOBER 2011

Are you interested in Software Engineering? Do you want to get up-to-date and relevant learning materials and opportunities that match your interests and the market needs? Are you keen to collaboratively work on your or others projects with people from all around the world combining different perspectives and experiences?

If you answered yes, you should definitely join us on openSE (www.opense.net)! Now on its full force, this virtual environment allows the continuous provision of up-to-date and relevant learning materials and opportunities that match learners' interests and employers' demand.

Bringing together higher education institutions, open source projects and enterprises, as well as all type of learners, you will be able to interact and share your ideas! Learn from others, help others!

Plus, you also have the opportunity to explore the foundation documents that provide the basis for the openSE framework. These documents are expected to be solid enough for others to build upon them and in that way to develop the Open Education Concept further.

Don't miss this opportunity! Come, explore and participate in openSE!
